

Vast Rules for Successful Living

Sahome

1. Manage your propensities with a "can do" attitude to increase your aptitude.
Don't let your irregularities undermine or undo your propensities,
 2. Bring all things, everything to gentleness.
 3. Homage everyone with appreciation.
"Noble causes bring about noble people."
 4. Counter the 'love of glamour' with effulgence.
 5. When there are complications, be cognizant...cognizant of responsibilities, or chores, or opportunities to show kindness.
"Doing goodness will not be diminished or denied—it will outlast all else."
"To do goodness in life has always replied with hope."
 6. Seek integrity! When we are totally virtuous, there is nothing more beautiful about us than that virtue.
"We all get to choose the kind of heaven we get to inherit."

7. Remember each life is of infinite value as also is each moment. Treasure both.
"We are the exalted manifestation of a Benevolent Creator and represent just the tip of something so much deeper, profound and auspicious than that which we see now on the surface of our lives."
 8. Surmount complications impediments and deficiency by persistence. They were only meant to give us something to pit ourselves against in order to help us make progress.
"Only in a world with so many 'close calls' is it possible to make moral headway as fast as we are making it."
 9. Let love hold the truth of all that we do.
"There are many faces of grace and many faces of spirituality in the world. We need to identify wholeheartedly with every exalting faith path upon the earth."
 10. Always know that we are capable of fulfilling the image and likeness of God.
